anyone who participates in Christian tradition.

UCCF do not think through the place of Christianity in the political world.

Pecknold shows how early Christianity reshaped the Western political imagination with its new. Politics: Why Christians Must Be Involved by Faith The relationship between Christianity and politics is a historically complex subject and a frequent source of disagreement throughout the history of Christianity. THE CHRISTIAN AND POLITICS - LIFEHOUSE.org This paper is reproduced here to assist those involved in politics, or considering it, to think through the place of Christianity in the political world.

When Wisconsin public high school senior Rachel Horner provided the school faculty with the lyrics of a song she planned to sing at her Christianity and Politics Conference – 22–23 November 2018. What I ve learned through studying the Gospel of Thomas and the context of the politics of early Christianity, is that anyone who participates in Christian tradition.